History

• Founded as AddRan Male and Female College, Thorp Spring, 1873-1895 (Thorp has no e, Spring no final s)
• Moved to Waco in 1895. Waco facility burned in 1910, and TCU then moved to Fort Worth.

University’s Names

• AddRan Male and Female College, 1873-1889
• Add-Ran Christian University, 1889-1902
• Texas Christian University, 1902-present

Mission, Vision and Core Values Statements

Mission: To educate individuals to think and act as ethical leaders and responsible citizens in the global community

Vision: To be a world-class, values-centered university

Core Values: TCU values academic achievement, personal freedom and integrity, the dignity of and respect for the individual, and a deep heritage that includes inclusiveness and service

Facts

• Be sure that any facts you use correspond with the current and official About TCU brochure. Information is available online at “TCU At a Glance” at http://www.tcu.edu/at-a-glance.asp.
• Official fall 2012 enrollment of 9,725: 8,456 undergraduates, 1,269 graduate students
• Student/faculty ratio is about 13:1.
• TCU’s retention of first-year students from fall 2011 to fall 2012 was 90 percent.
• 82,000 living alumni
• Campus size: 277 acres
• Tuition covers only about 68 percent of the true cost of a student’s TCU experience. Donor contributions, income from the endowment and other revenue make up the remaining 32 percent.
• About 80 percent of TCU students (graduate and undergraduate) benefit from financial aid, with 65 percent receiving aid directly from the University.
• International students come to TCU from more than 85 countries. Undergraduate international student enrollment in fall 2012 was more than 400.
• The Class of 2016 was selected from more than 19,000 applicants.

TCU’s Endowment

The TCU endowment comprises the long-term investment assets of the University. These assets are strategically invested by the chief investment officer and his staff under the direction of the Investment Committee of the Board of Trustees. Total investments as of May 31, 2012, were about $1.2 billion. The TCU endowment is ranked 61st among the top college and university endowments in the United States. In Fiscal Year 2012, endowment income provided for 14.1 percent of the University’s operating expenses.

Athletics

Horned Frog (official mascot — space between words)
Refer to all TCU athletic teams as Horned Frogs; Frogs on second reference.
TCU Equestrian team
Amon G. Carter Stadium (Per the Chancellor, use full name with middle initial unless simply calling it “the stadium.” Never use “Carter Stadium.”)
Champions Club, Founders Club, etc. (Amon G. Carter Stadium)
Founders Plaza (Amon G. Carter Stadium)

Big 12 Conference

Big 12 Conference — not “Big XII” or “Big Twelve” (TCU moved to this conference in July 2012.) Click here to access Big 12 Art Sheet: http://www.marketingandcommunication.tcu.edu/pdf/Big-12-Art-Sheet-072612.pdf

Big 12 Championships
Big 12 events should only be referred to as championships, not tournaments. Championship is always singular unless referring to combined men’s and women’s championships (cross country, swimming, tennis, etc.), which are two events at the same site. For example:
Big 12 Cross Country Championships
Big 12 Soccer Championship
Phillips 66 Big 12 Men’s Basketball Championship
Big 12 Tennis Championships
Click here for championship marks: http://www.marketingandcommunication.tcu.edu/pdf/Championship-Marks-06222012.pdf

All-Big 12 Teams
All-conference honors are awarded for all league sports. All-league honorees will be identified as follows:
All-Big 12
All-Big 12 First Team (not First Team All-Big 12)
Big 12 All-Tournament Team
Academic All-Big 12 Team

Major awards are capitalized (Big 12 Player of the Year, Big 12 Rookie of the Year)

Buildings/Maps

Use formal name of campus facilities with uppercase in formal communication.
Official names can be found at http://bldglist.tcu.edu.

Mary Wright Admission Center
Students here for Monday at TCU will meet at the Mary Wright Admission Center.
On second reference, if the proper name is used, drop the first and middle name/initial and retain uppercase: Wright Admission Center; Students here for Monday at TCU will meet at the Wright Admission Center.

When the proper name is not used on second reference, lower case: admission center;
Students here for Monday at TCU will meet at the admission center.

Exceptions:
Brown-Lupton University Union; University Union (always capitalize)
(BLUUU is acceptable for internal, on-campus use)
Campus Commons; always use this way. Do not shorten name or lowercase. The official TCU campus map, located at www.maps.tcu.edu, is the only map that should be distributed to ANYONE (this comes directly from the Chancellor).

Collegiate Beaux Arts (architectural style of most TCU buildings)

Facilities Master Plan

Intellectual Commons — planned for the east campus; will include a transformation of the Mary Couts Burnett Library; a new instructional building east of the library; an addition to the Annie Richardson Bass Building; and renovation of existing space for the Harris College of Nursing & Health Sciences.

Square Footage of TCU Facilities

A listing of the square footage of all major TCU facilities can be found in the fall Fact Book produced each year by the Office of Institutional Research. Fact Book information also can be found at http://ir.tcu.edu.

The Christian Church (Disciples of Christ)

The Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) is a Protestant community that began in the United States two centuries ago. Coming largely from Presbyterian parentage, Disciples bear many similarities to the faith and practice of traditional Christian communities. Distinctive characteristics of Disciples include believer’s baptism, weekly communion and a commitment to unity of all Christians and to the dialogue between faith and reason. A reforming impulse leads to ongoing re-examination of personal faith commitments. Disciples are profoundly committed to social justice and to honoring the dignity of all persons, as well as to constructive dialogue across all faith communities and traditions.

TCU-Church Relationship

Texas Christian University is the largest of 14 colleges and universities associated with the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), a denomination committed to demonstrating true community, deep Christian spirituality and a passion for justice. With the full support of the Disciples, TCU is committed to the highest standards of scholarship, affording students the rigorous challenges that make higher education worthwhile. Reflection on questions of meaning and value is crucial to genuine learning. TCU’s covenant with the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) supports an approach to education that brings together faith, reason and intellectual curiosity. [Note: TCU is associated with, not governed by, the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ).]

Community Scholars

The Chancellor’s Council on Diversity established the Community Scholars Program in 1999. Since the first class enrolled in 2000, more than 200 Community Scholars have enriched the TCU community. TCU has helped to make college a reality for more than 6,000 first-generation/low-income students across the Metroplex through College Access programs, which include TCU Community Scholars.

The University has Community Scholars partnerships with a number of DFW area high schools, including Diamond Hill Jarvis, Dunbar, North Side, O.D. Wyatt, Polytechnic, Trimble Tech and South Hills; DeSoto High School; Sam Houston in Arlington; and Lincoln and Carter in Dallas.

Degrees

This list offers some examples of common degrees earned the Ph.D., the Master of Arts, etc. (not a Ph.D. or a Master of Arts) Earned is preferred to receive.

Use the instead of his or her. For example: Mr. Smith earned the Master of Arts from TCU.
Not: Mr. Smith received his Master of Arts from TCU.

Financial Aid and Scholarships
About 80 percent of TCU students benefit from financial aid.

Official Names of Scholarships
A list of most of the endowed scholarships can be found in the TCU catalog. If the scholarship you are looking for is not in the list, contact Samantha Suttle in Donor Relations, c.s.suttle@tcu.edu, for the official name. To get to the list, go to http://www.catalog.tcu.edu/current_year/undergraduate. Search for “endowed scholarships” in “entire catalog.”

Official Names of Chairs and Professorships
A list of chairs and professorships can be found in the TCU catalog. To get to the list, go to http://www.catalog.tcu.edu/current_year/undergraduate. Search for “chairs” in “entire catalog.”

Fiscal Year
Follow these rules regarding “fiscal year” in all written reports and documents, per the Chancellor.

Please use either of the following:
FY2012 (No space between the “Y” and the “2”) Fiscal Year 2012

Please do NOT use:
FY ‘12
FY 2012
FY12

Fundraising
The Campaign for TCU, the University’s 7-year campaign, raised $434.1 million to create a world-class, values-centered university experience for TCU students. When it concluded May 31, 2012, the campaign had surpassed its original goal by $184 million. Almost $109 million from the campaign was directed to scholarships. Thirteen new endowed faculty positions were created and donors gave $67 million for faculty and academic program support. Twenty-six facilities were constructed or extensively renovated. The University continues to raise funds for endowed positions, academic programs, faculty support and other needs, but the top priority is scholarships.

Tuition covers only about 68 percent of the true cost of a student’s TCU experience. Donor contributions, income from the endowment and other revenue make up the remaining 32 percent.

dependent — When discussing gifts that endow something, do not use the verb “endowed.” Use “supports” or “in support of.” Instead of “The Smiths endowed the William Smith Professorship in Basket Weaving,” use “The Smiths’ gift is in support of the William Smith Professorship in Basket Weaving.”

Neeley School Recognition
The Neeley School of Business at TCU <http://www.neeley.tcu.edu> is nationally ranked and recognized as a premier business school for both undergraduate and graduate programs by Bloomberg Businessweek, U.S. News & World Report, The Economist, Entrepreneur magazine and The Princeton Review. The U.S. Association for Small Business and Entrepreneurship named the Neeley Entrepreneurship Program the 2011 National Model Entrepreneurship Program. Gartner ranked the Neeley Supply Chain 19th in the nation. The Neeley School is fully accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB), the highest standard of accreditation for business schools internationally.

ages – Use figures for people and animals but not for inanimates: The boy is 13 years old; the law is twelve years old. Use hyphens for ages expressed as adjectives before a noun or as substitutes for a noun: A 10-year-old girl, but the girl is 10 years old. The party is for 4-year-olds. The man is in his 40s (no apostrophe).

grade, grader – hyphenate in combining forms: a third-grade pupil, a 12th-grade student, second-grader, 10th-grader.

No. 1 (as in “We’re No.1” or “The school was rated No.1.”) numbers - Spell out a number at the beginning of a sentence, with one exception: a numeral that identifies a calendar year: 1968 marked a turning point in the Vietnam War. Spell out whole numbers below 10.

Use figures for 10 and above: They had 10 dogs and four cats. When large numbers must be spelled out, use a hyphen to connect a word ending in ‘y’ to another word; do NOT use commas between other separate words that are part of one number: twenty, twenty-one, one hundred forty-five.

Numerals - In general, spell out one through nine and first through ninth, use numerals for 10 and 10th and above. For more details, see the AP Stylebook. Use figures for dimensions, percentages, ages, distances, computer storage capacity. Write out percent instead of using % sign, and use a figure instead of spelling out (3 percent).

Outside Business Names and Titles

Use what the company uses. Check letterhead and spell out or abbreviate accordingly.
Corporation or Corp.
Company or Co.
Check for commas between names and whether to use & or and.
Inc. (Use comma before and after in a sentence, i.e. Talbot, Inc., founded in 1899.)

Scholarships (Also see Financial Aid)

- assistantships
- Chancellor’s Scholar Program
- Community Scholars (Also see Community Scholars separate listing.)
- fellowships
- J.W. Fulbright Student Program
- Fulbright Scholar
- Fulbright Scholarship
- Fulbright winner
- Gates Cambridge Scholarship
- Gates Millennium Scholar
- Goldwater Scholar
- Marshall Scholarship
- Rhodes Scholar
- Harry S. Truman Scholarship
- Truman Scholar
- middle income scholarships (no hyphen)

A list of most of the endowed scholarships can be found in the TCU catalog. To get to the list, go to http://www.catalog.tcu.edu/current_year/undergraduate. Search for “endowed scholarships” in “entire catalog.” If the scholarship you are looking for is not in the list, contact Samantha Suttle in Donor Relations, c.s.suttle@tcu.edu, for the official name.

Seasons, Dates

- fall (seasons not capitalized)
- Sept. 23-24, 2011 (not 23 and 24). Abbreviate months when dates follow, except for March, April, May, June and July.
- Sept. 3 (not September 3rd)
- fall 2011 (no comma)
- July 2011 (no day, no comma)
- May 12, 2011 (day, comma — if the full date is used in a sentence, use a comma after the year as well)
1990s (no apostrophe)
’90s
mid-1990s

Spaces after Periods

Use one space after periods at the ends of sentences in printed publications. Use two spaces otherwise, for example, in letters. (But do not use two spaces after periods in initials or following titles such as Mr., Mrs., Ms., Dr. and Rev.)

TCU

Use Texas Christian University on first mention in a communication from the Chancellor or on formal occasions. However, in articles in publications and in informal letters, we generally use TCU on first reference.

TCU (no periods)

the University (Use capital letter only when TCU can replace the University. Do not capitalize the t in the. Example: Do not capitalize University in a sentence such as: “This university is unique.” One wouldn’t say: “This TCU is unique.”)

Schools and Colleges

On first reference, use the full, formal name of the school/college. Examples: AddRan College of Liberal Arts, College of Communication, College of Education, College of Fine Arts, Harris College of Nursing & Health Sciences, Neeley School of Business, John V. Roach Honors College, College of Science & Engineering. On second reference, the use of school or college (both lowercase) is acceptable.

Trustee (Always capitalize when referring to TCU or Brite Trustees.)
trustee (Always lower-case when referring to other institutions’ trustees.)
Emeritus Trustee(s) - formerly Honorary Trustee(s) for TCU. When leaving active status as Board members, some (but not all) Trustees are elected to emeritus status.
Honorary Trustee(s) - became a new designation in 2006 for individuals who have offered exceptional service and generosity to the University. The first three Honorary Trustees were W.A.”Tex” Moncrief, Perry Bass and Anne Marion.
Board of Trustees (Always capitalize when referring to TCU Board, but not external boards.)

artist-in-residence (Do not capitalize.)
choreographer-in-residence (Do not capitalize.)
distinguished guest artist
executive-in-residence (Do not capitalize.)
interim - Capitalize when in a title preceding a name: “… said Interim Dean Joan Smith.” Do not capitalize when following name: “… said Joan Smith, interim dean.”

Rev. - When this description is used before an individual’s name, precede it with “the.”

The Honorable - American, federal, state and local government officials are referred to by the courtesy title “The Honorable.” On envelopes, write this on the line above the person’s full name. It is preferable not to use the abbreviation “The Hon.” People who have earned this title may be addressed as such for life; however, they should not use it to refer to themselves. Do not address a person in conversation by this title. Instead, use “Mr.,” “Ms.,” “Mrs.” or “Dr.”

Order of spouses in address - When wife is Dr. and husband is Mr., on address use this form: “Dr. Lynn D. and Joseph W. Ball.” On salutation, use this form: “Dear Dr. and Mr. Ball.”

When both spouses are doctors and share a surname (both have doctorates or are medical doctors) - On address use this form: “Dr. Joseph W. Ball and Dr. Lynn D. Ball.” On salutation, use this form: “Dear Drs. Ball.”

When both spouses are reverends and share a surname, on address use this form: “Rev. Joseph W. Ball and Rev. Lynn D. Ball.” On salutation, use this form: “Dear Revs. Ball.”

Reverend comes first unless the doctor is a TCU/Brite person. (Example: Dr. Newell Williams, president of Brite Divinity School, would come before his wife, Rev. Sue McDougal.)
